VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

There are some anti-vaccinationists in this city.

Some of us went to the corn show Wednesday night, at the Arcade.

The latest possessor of a Ford touring car through the Summer garage is Mr. J. T. Cromer.

Now you don't want to miss hearing Wherry's orchestra at the Arcade on Tuesday and Friday nights.

On Tuesday Probate Judge C. C. Schumpert issued marriage license to Mr. George Senn and Miss Rebecca Reeder, both of Kinards.

The Theatro and the Arcade are running excellent pictures these afternoons and nights. Both are fine shows.

McHardy Mower has opened a garage at the desirable stand just vacated by the Fant Motor company. That chief of autoists, W. C. Waldrop, is to be found right there.

The Dudley correspondence in the last issue of the Pageland Journal contained nine paragraphs, seven of which mentioned a Funderburk. Another change in order.

The point arrived at in last issue as to measurements along Friend street having been taken was that it looked at last as though the said sidewalk was going to be fixed by somebody.

The steel bridge fever seems to be gone down on the Saluda side. We understand that the Newberry side is ready to act, but Saluda's delegation went budge.—Delmar cor. Leesville News-Advocate.

If you go to the Theatro Thursday afternoon or night you will see "The Daughter of a Spy," which is said to be a good one, and great sensational feature. Also, "At the Masquerade Ball." Two reels. Don't mistake the place—the old court house.

That enterprising, pushing and progressive magistrate, merchant and all round business man, J. C. Sample, has added a new one to his many branches, his latest line being an automobile hack operated by W. S. Melton, another man who has the quick movement habit.

The Woman's Christian Temperance union of Prosperity will hold a meeting in memory of Frances Willard at the A. R. P. church Sunday evening, February 23, at 7.30. The congregations of the town are invited to join in this service.

Mr. T. H. Chappell has bought the grocery of W. J. Miller, Mr. Miller having gone to Charleston to engage in work in that city. Mr. Chappell will continue the store at the same stand. He will do a good business, as he has the qualifications of a good business man.

In some towns of the State Washington's birthday will be observed by the closing of banks, etc., as it is a national holiday. In Newberry the postoffice will be closed and the Custer Massacre will be shown at the Arcade. You know Gen. A. C. Garlington was a lieutenant at the time of the massacre, and he figured in that uprising.

Pat Smith, colored, died last Saturday on Mr. R. E. Livingston's place in No. 6 township. Pat was between 80 and 85 years old. His death will recall old times to the oldest inhabitants who will recollect that Pat worked for old man Julius Smith many years ago when Mr. Smith was in business in Newberry.

Washington's birthday being a legal holiday. It will be observed, also, of course, at the postoffice, which will be closed except for one hour in the morning, from 10 to 11 o'clock—when the general delivery and carrier's windows will be open. There will be no delivery by the rural carrier's, and the city carriers will make only the first, business, delivery—the eight o'clock city delivery.

O. & T. E. Salter, refined photographers, took a group picture yesterday of the chief of police and his staff and the health inspector. It would be hard to find as handsome a set of officers anywhere else in the State, Laurens not excepted; although, as old man Abe Martin says, "nobody ever looked natural in a photograph if he knewed it wur bein' took."

The negro Tom Thompson, who was arrested and jailed by Rural Policeman John H. Turner last week, will not have to answer to the charge of murdering a baby, as the coroner's jury returned a verdict that the infant came to its death from causes unknown to the jury. He was held on the charge of beating his wife, on Mr. J. S. Suber's place on Broad river, the beating occurring on Saturday. The woman gave birth to a dead child on Sunday. It is not held that the beating caused the death of the child. Thompson has been released by Magistrate Sample on a $500 bond, signed by J. S. J. Suber, of Strother.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Literary Societies Discuss and Settle the Big Questions.—Observe Washington's Birthday.

The two literary societies of the high school has been doing splendid work this year. The boy's society has departed from the regular work of a society with the opening of the general assembly, and it has been discussing the more important bills that have been introduced into the State legislature. In order to do this work in the real spirit of a deliberative body, the society formed a State senate. Each member of the society represents some county of the State, and has the duties and privileges of a real senator.

The senate thus formed has already discussed compulsory education and woman suffrage, and on next Friday evening the question of medical examination of school children will be settled.

It is a pleasure to see the enthusiastic spirit with which these young men enter these discussions and their courtesy to each other in yielding the floor takes considerably of the spirit of a real deliberative body. The members have become so interested in the work, that when the time arrives for adjournment motion after motion to adjourn is defeated.

The schools will celebrate Washington's birthday Friday night in the city opera house at 8.30. This will consist of songs and an address by Dr. E. P. Jones pastor of the First Baptist church of Newberry. The public is cordially invited to attend. There is no admission.

The committee that is charged with the duty of selecting and purchasing pictures for the high school auditorium met Saturday morning in the superintendent's office and made a magnificent selection. Eleven pictures were selected at a net cost of $170.00. These pictures are photographs and copies of the great masterpieces and come on the best canvas, and with the latest and most attractive moulding. These pictures will be purchased from Hegger of New York. This is possibly the best house in this country to deal with in securing high class pictures for schools. All the pictures at Winthrop College were bought of this same house. When the pictures arrive and are hung we cordially invite all our patrons and any interested party to visit the high school and see them. The auditorium is open from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. and we would be glad for all our town people to examine these pictures.

Once Worked in Newberry.

Orangeburg, Feb. 18.—Walter D. Sturgeon died at his home in this city in Windsor street this morning after suffering a stroke of paralysis to which he succumbed. The deceased was stricken in Columbia, while he was in that city in attendance upon court. The funeral services will be held from the residence tomorrow morning at 10.30 o'clock. Burial will take place at Sunnyside cemetery. The services will be conducted by the Rev. S. D. Colyer, pastor of the Christian church.

Mr. Sturgeon was about 35 years of age. He leaves a widow, who was formerly Miss Riley, two daughters, one brother and several sisters. The deceased was a printer and baker by trade.

It will be remembered that Mr. Sturgeon suffered an accident at the Atlantic Coast Line railway depot in this city some years ago, which caused him to lose one of his legs. Not long ago the case was tried in Columbia and a verdict for $10,000 was awarded Mr. Sturgeon. The case is now pending in the supreme court. It was while in attendance upon his case that he was stricken with the disease to which he succumbed.

Newberry Boy Marries a Florida Girl.

On Tuesday night of this week Mr. Andrew C. Thomasson, Jr., of Newberry, boarded the Cannon Ball train. He was bound for Jacksonville, Fla. He was alone and was going on a quiet mission, to marry the girl he had met at her home in Maxwell, Fla., three years ago when he was running a saw mill near that place. In Jacksonville he and Miss Madena Scott were married on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, by the Rev. Mr. Mahon, at the home of the bride's sister. The bride and groom arrived in Newberry Thursday morning on the Cannon Ball and will make their home here with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomasson, where they are welcomed by the friends of the happy groom who extend congratulations and wish for the two a beautiful life of love and health and friends and wealth.

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edw. Fulenwider, Pastor). Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

11 a. m.—The regular morning service. The pastor will preach on the subject: "Some Searching Questions." Life is largely made up of asking and answering questions. The man that never asks or answers questions will not get much wisdom. The Bible is full of heart-searching questions. Questions that have wrapped up in them the destiny of lives and immortal souls. It is good for a man to "come to himself," at least, occasionally, and ask, "Where am I standing," and "What am I doing?" Some very practical questions will be presented for consideration in the sermon.

7.30 p. m.—At this hour the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society will hold a special service. The program will consist of readings, recitations, solos, duets, etc. Dr. E. P. Cromer, who always has something interesting to say, will make the address.

4 p. m.—Sunday school meets. "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord." A cordial invitation to all the services is extended the public.

Mr. J. A. Minnough has gone North to purchase his spring and summer stock of dry goods, clothing, etc. On his return he will let the people know of his purchases, and offer an array of first-class goods at his usually low prices. Mr. Minnough is an expert buyer, which is one reason he can sell good goods at very low prices.

Death of Mrs. H. F. Counts.

Special to The Herald and News.

Pomaria, Feb. 20.—On Saturday night, February 15, at 9 o'clock, Mrs. Florence Counts breathed her last and her spirit took its flight to the God who gave it. On the following day her remains were laid to rest in St. Paul's church cemetery, she being a faithful member since early childhood of that church. A large congregation of friends and relatives assembled to pay this last tribute to a good woman. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Y. von A. Riser.

Mrs. Counts had been in bad health for a long time with dropsy. All was done for her that skillful physicians and loving friends and relatives could do, but all was in vain.

Mrs. Counts was before her marriage a Miss Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Livingston. She was married to Mr. Henry F. Counts in December, 1885, and unto them were born four children, two girls and two boys; one son died in infancy; she is survived by the other three. She is also survived by four brothers, Messrs. J. H. and J. P. Livingston, of Pomaria; D. A. Livingston, of Newberry, and Johnnie Livingston, of Columbia. Mrs. Counts was 53 years of age.

To know her was to love her. She was a Christian wife, a devoted mother, a kind friend and neighbor, such that the community in which she lived and the home from which she has departed will greatly miss. Yet the world is better for her having lived in it. She bore all her pain and trials with Christian fortitude, and at the last made the remark: "It is all right with my God." It gave the writer good pleasure to know her, she being perhaps one of the best friends he had. The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. The grave was covered with beautiful floral offerings. J. W. R.

1888—Plester-Green—1913.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan R. Green celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage Monday evening, February 17, at their beautiful new home in Harper street. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns, bamboo and cut flowers, the dining room, where an old time wedding supper of several courses was served, being all in white and green. Southern smilax festooned the walls; in the centre of the table was a large glass vase filled with white carnations and maiden hair ferns, and white candles shed a soft light over the whole room. The guests were met at the door by Messrs. Wm. Green and Richard Floyd, and were received in the parlor by Mr. and Mrs. Green. Miss Green and Miss Banna Green. Mrs. Green wore an exquisite imported gown of silver crepe de chine with gloves and slippers to match, and carried white carnations.

Assisting in the entertaining of the guests were Mesdames Carwile, Bowman, Weeks, Wilson and Floyd, and Misses Bess Gilder, Pauline Gilder, Gertrude Carwile, Fannie Mac-Carwile, Lucile Wilson, Florence Bowman, and Sarah Merchant. Silver hearts were given as souvenirs to the guests, who all pronounced it one of the most delightful affairs of the season.
